

Satellite radio has become the mode of choice for all cross country driving trips, business or pleasure, plus I utilize XM radio for local weather and conditions, both in the car and in our aircraft. Please do not restrict our ability to receive the kind of information we need in the best possible format. Thank you for your consideration.